REZONING APPLICATION GUIDE

What is the purpose of a Rezoning Application?

A Rezoning Application is necessary when one wants to use or develop a parcel of land under the guidelines of a different zoning district than currently exists on the property. All Rezoning Applications require a public hearing as part of the review process by the Planning and Zoning Commission and the Board of Aldermen. Approvals of Rezoning Applications take the form of an ordinance, which requires two readings by the Board of Aldermen.

Rezoning Application Checklist: ✓

1	Completed application as provided by the City.
2	Application fee.
3	Legal description of the property.
4	Affidavit of ownership or proof of legal interest in the property.
5	Description of proposal.
6	Map depicting the general location of the property.
7	Preliminary development/site plan.
8	Any other information deemed necessary at the pre-application meeting (studies, analysis, etc.)

Rezoning Application Review Criteria: ✓

1	Pre-application meeting.
2	Complete application packet with all required documents, plans and drawings.
3	Proposed land use is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan.
4	Proposed land use is consistent with the Future Land Use Map.
5	The proposed use does not adversely affect properties in general vicinity.
6	Public facilities and services are available and adequate to meet demand generated by the proposed use.

Please note this is only a guide. All applications must comply with the Comprehensive Plan and all applicable City codes. Access to the City Codes is provided on the City's website, www.cityofgrainvalley.org, or by contacting Community Development at (816) 847-6220. Pre-application meetings are required for all applicants prior to submittal of an application.

SPECIAL/CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT GUIDE

What is the purpose of a Special/Conditional Use Permit?

A Special/Conditional Use Permit application is necessary when one wants to conduct a use unique to the zoning district, as listed in Section 400.240 of the City's Code of Ordinances. All Special/Conditional Use Permit applications require a public hearing as part of the review process by the Planning and Zoning Commission and the Board of Aldermen. Approvals of Special/Conditional Use Permit applications take the form of an ordinance, which requires two readings by the Board of Aldermen.

Special/Conditional Use Permit Application Checklist: ✓

1	Completed application as provided by the City.
2	Application fee.
3	Legal description of the property.
4	Affidavit of ownership or proof of legal interest in the property.
5	Description of proposal.
6	Map depicting the general location of the property.
7	Development/site plan of the property.
8	Any other information deemed necessary at the pre-application meeting (studies, analysis, etc.)

Special/Conditional Use Permit Application Review Criteria: ✓

1	Pre-application meeting
2	Complete application packet with all required documents, plans and drawings
3	Proposed land use is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan.
4	Proposed land use is consistent with the Future Land Use Map
5	The proposed use does not adversely affect properties in general vicinity.
6	Public facilities and services are available and adequate to meet demand generated by the proposed use.
7	The use is permitted in Section 400.240 of the City Code of Ordinances, or is a renewal of an existing Special/Conditional Use Permit.
8	The proposed use does not adversely impact the public health, safety, comfort or general welfare of the Community.
9	The proposed use does not adversely impact the public infrastructure system.
10	The proposed use is compatible with the use, scale, orientation and setback of properties in the general vicinity.

Please note this is only a guide. All applications must comply with the Comprehensive Plan and all applicable City codes. Access to the City Codes is provided on the City's website, www.cityofgrainvalley.org, or by contacting Community Development at (816) 847-6220. Pre-application meetings are required for all applicants prior to submittal of an application.

PRELIMINARY PLAT APPLICATION GUIDE

What is the purpose of a Preliminary Plat Application?

A Plat application is necessary when one wants to divide land and to ensure development occurs in a manner that allows the areas to be served by public infrastructure and services. There are two types of plat applications: Preliminary and Final. Preliminary Plats are required for subdivision of land to ensure the layout of a proposed subdivision conforms to the Comprehensive Plan and Chapter 405 of the City Code of Ordinances. All Preliminary Plat applications are reviewed by the Planning and Zoning Commission. Approval of the Preliminary Plat allows the applicant to proceed to the engineering portion of the subdivision process, which is required for Final Plat approval.
